

High School Sailing Double-Handed Sailboat Racing Class

Spring Semester 2010

January 5, 2010-May 4, 2010

What it's about: Fun on the water. Sail and race in Capri 14.2s (and occasionally racing 420s). Come up to speed on boat handling, safety, docking and racing procedures and tactics.

Who should attend: Any high school student who would like to have fun sailing. Classes include students beginning to sail and those with more advanced skills. High instructor-to-student ratio means personal attention and rapid learning.

When and Where: Every Tuesday, January 4 to May 4, 4-6:30pm (or dark) at Tempe Town Lake. There will be significant time on the water, an essential element in developing skills. And we plan to have an Arizona high school sailing championship regatta Saturday, April 17.

Instructors: Highly-experienced, US Sailing-certified sailors

How much: ASF fee is $195 per student. Register online at www.AZsailing.com. All boats and costs are covered. You should have your own PFD (life jacket), but one can be provided.
