

High School Sailing
Double-Handed Sailboat Racing Class
Spring Semester 2012 – 16 sailing days
Sailing on Tuesdays starting January 10th 2012

What it's about: Fun on the water. Sail and race in Capri 14.2s and 420s. Come up to speed on boat handling, safety, docking and racing procedures and tactics. New sailors welcome.

Who should attend: Any junior high (middle school) or high school student who would like to have fun sailing. Classes include students beginning to sail and those with more advanced skills. High instructor-to-student ratio means personal attention and rapid learning.

When and Where: Every Tuesday, 1/10/2012 through 4/24/2012, 4:00-6:30pm (we now have boat lights for the last ½ hour before dark) at Tempe Town Lake. There will be significant time on the water, an essential element in developing skills. Arizona high school sailing championship regatta Saturday, April 21, 2012 is open to any Arizona student.

Instructors: Highly-experienced, US Sailing-certified sailors.

How much: ASF fee is $195 per student. Register online at www.AZsailing.com All boats and costs are covered. Sailing instruction and short practice races every Tuesday at Tempe Town Lake. Meet at the grassy knoll near the boat ramp and marina.
